

Chi Ho Sham, Ph.D.

American Water Works Association President-Elect
Vice President and Chief Scientist of Eastern Research Group, Inc.
ChiHo.Sham@erg.com

Chi Ho Sham is Vice President and the Chief Scientist of Eastern Research Group, Inc. in Lexington, MA. Over the past three decades, he has worked extensively in drinking water protection and water quality issues. He provides technical leadership and advice on scientific research and policy development issues, such as source water protection, impacts of wildfires, forest management, stormwater on water quality, effective utility management approaches, and aquifer storage and recovery. He is an active member of the American Water Works Association (AWWA) and is currently the President-Elect. He received his B.A. from the University of Regina in Canada and his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University at Buffalo. Prior to joining the consulting field, Chi Ho was a faculty member of Boston University from 1982 to 1992. Currently, he is an adjunct professor and a research fellow at Clark University in Worcester, Massachusetts.